Dear Sir/Madam,

Further to our previous correspondence regarding the proposed validation to 'The William Adams License' hours being extended for the outside area. The Pub is based in Gorleston High Street with their 'Garden Outside Area' at the back of the pub facing the car park.

We strongly oppose the extra hours requested by The William Adams change to their license for 'extra drinking time outside' as this impacts on us due to living opposite the car park. (And have been here for 25 years!!)

We would encourage you and members of the committee to visit the car park unannounced between the hours of 8.30pm to 9.15pm to notice the difference in noise pollution.

As mentioned before 'Weatherspoon's' have done nothing to curtail the noise! The outside 'drinking times' were set by yourselves originally and we don't see the need for these to be increased.

What we find particularly discerning is that a representative of The William Adams' visited all the properties concerned and had the front to tell us in his own words "You don't have a leg to stand on"?!?!? We also received a letter Stating that they were changing their opening times prior to actually going through the proper licensing procedure.

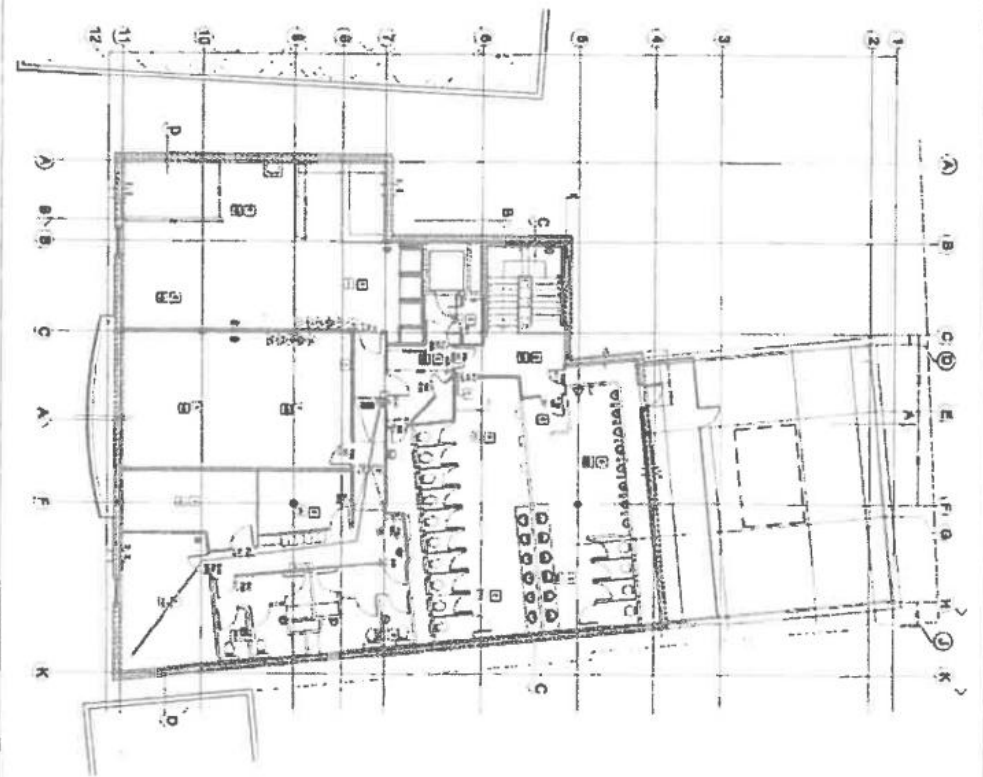

Please may I ask for a response to our email by return.

With kindest regards

Mrs Lisa & Mr Vaughan Cutter

17 Duke Road, Gorleston, Great Yarmouth, NR31 6LL.
